FROM: Jenna Tuma, Director of Parks and Recreation
Eric Anderson, Recreation Manager
SUBJECT: Lake Kohlmier Ordinance Amendment

Purpose:

Request Council adopt Proposed Ordinance 21-4, an amendment to City Code Title IX: General Regulations, Chapter 91, Section 91.41 Lake Kohlmier Swimming Restrictions.

Background:

An increased number of individuals are using the fishing pier on the north side of Lake Kohlmier as a diving platform and swimming in an undesignated swim area, creating a safety concerns brought on by diving into undetermined water depths and swimming / diving among fishing activities.

The statement added to this Code Section will be: "No person shall jump, dive, or enter Lake Kohlmier to swim from any dock or other structure in or abutting Lake Kohlmier, except from authorized structures at the designated swimming area at the municipal beach during times designated by the City Parks and Recreation Department. "

The Park Board recommended this ordinance amendment during their April 12, 2021 meeting. Council approved the first reading of this proposed ordinance during the April 20, 2021 Council Meeting and there have been no changes since.

Budget Impact:

The cost to post signs at the North DNR fishing pier and update the Beach Rules sign near the swim beach and beach house. All signs will be printed in Hispanic, Somali and English languages.

Staff Recommendation:

Staff recommends approval of proposed Ordinance 21-4.
